The Inspector General of Police,
Nigeria Police Force,
Police Force Headquarters,
Louis Edet House,
Abuja.

Dear Sir,

HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION AND BRUTALISATION OF MISS STEPHANIE OTOBO USING THE INSTRUMENTALITY OF THE POLICE FORCE BY APOSTLE JOHNSON SULEMAN

We are solicitors to Miss Stephanie Oto (hereinafter referred to as "our client") and on her instructions we write.

Our client is a Nigerian and an artist who trades her business in Europe and America and resides in Canada.

Sometime in 2015, our client and Apostle Suleman started a relationship in Canada after she was formally informed by the said Apostle that he had divorced his wife. The love relationship between our client and her Apostle lover blossomed, resulting to Apostle Suleman's proposal to our client. The Apostle went further to meet our client's family with drinks and gifts for introduction wherein he informed our client's kinsmen of his intention to marry our client.

It is our further brief that based on this promise our unsuspecting client who also fell in love basically abandoned her lucrative career, her cars, friends and her house in Canada as the Apostle also promised to buy her a house in Nigeria and replicate the standard of living she is used to in Canada. Painfully without recourse to our client and his promise to marry our client, Apostle Suleman unceremoniously called off the marriage proposal.

This infraction of the law, to wit; breach of promise to marry, made our client to instruct us to proceed on her behalf on the tortious claim of breach of promise to marry. Having been briefed, we immediately wrote a letter of demand to the Apostle demanding the sum of ₦500,000,000.00 (Five Hundred Million Naira) as damages for the breach of promise to marry our client.

However, rather than accepting our letter and respond to the said letter appropriately, Apostle Suleman has been employing all sorts of devices to intimidate and harass our client.

On Friday the 3rd of March, 2017, our client was arrested by the men and officers of the Nigeria Police from the Monitoring Unit, Kem Salem House Obalende, Lagos State at the behest of our client's lover, Apostle Suleman upon a trumped up allegation of fraud and related offences.

Unfortunately our client was arrested like a common criminal in handcuffs inside a banking hall in the full glare of the onlookers and spectators and was whisked away in police van and since been detained at FCIID Alagbon, Lagos State over an amorous affair that has turned sour, a relationship that is totally devoid of any criminality.

It is against this backdrop that we urge you to use your good offices in calling for the case file with a view of setting the innocent girl (our client) free and prosecuting Apostle Suleman for deliberately giving the Police wrong information, just as he recently incited his congregation against the Fulani herdsmen.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Apostle Johnson Suleman,

Omega Fire Ministry,
Benin/Auchi Road,
Auchi,
Edo State.

Dear Sir,

DEMAND FOR THE SUM OF ₦500,000,000.00 (FIVE HUNDRED MILLION NAIRA) AS DAMAGES FOR THE BREACH OF PROMISE TO MARRY MISS STEPHANIE OTOBO

We are solicitors to Miss Stephanie Otobo, (hereinafter referred to as "our client") and on whose behalf we write.

Our brief reveals as follows:

That sometime in June 2015, you and our client started a relationship in Canada after you told her that you had formally divorced your wife. You were so much in love with our client that you had to lick her body from her head to her toe (including her private part) each time you wanted to make love to her.

You also invited our client from Canada to Europe; and in Europe, you always slept with our client all night after your church programmes, at a time our client was the one who normally sent the topic of the message you were to preach and the songs to be sung.

You later invited our client to your church in Nigeria, and begged her to get pregnant for you as you wanted more male children. Our client later got pregnant for you and at that time you formally proposed marriage to her which she accepted. In furtherance to the said marriage proposal, you went to our client's family with drinks and gifts for an introduction. At the introduction, in which our client's mother, sister, uncle, cousins and other family members were in attendance, you informed them of your intention to marry our client as your wife.

You also made our client to forfeit her house, cars, friends and other things in Canada as you promised to get a house for her in Nigeria and make her comfortable. With all these our client thought you were real and had her hope in you. There was a time you even requested our client to bring her friend for a threesome sex orgy which our client refused on the ground that it is not right to do that especially with your promise to marry her.

It is pertinent to note, that our client has evidence of your relationship with her, to wit: your naked pictures with her, her bank statement showing how you have been sending money to her, text messages and others we may not want to mention here. At a time, our client had to send you her naked pictures every Sunday morning for you to be able to preach on the pulpit!

Despite, the foregoing, you finally called it a quit with our client and has resorted to threatening her life through different persons and agencies.

In as much as we do not want to comment on your relationship with our client, we must let you know that breach of promise to marry is actionable in law, and your resorting to threat to life of our client is least expected from a supposed man of God.

It is based on the foregoing that we have our client's further instruction to demand, that you desist from continuously threatening her life.

In the same vein, it is our client's demand that the sum of ₦500,000,000.00 (Five Hundred Million Naira) be paid to her as damages for the breach of promise to marry.

TAKE NOTICE that our demands are to be met within 7 (seven) days of the receipt of this letter as we shall not hesitate to petition the appropriate Law Enforcement Agency against you for threat to life and seek remedy for our client in a competent court for breach of promise to marry.

A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,
