Dear Barrister Ejimakor,

Subject: Communication 680/17 - Nnamdi Kanu & the Indigenous People of Biafra (Represented by Adulbert Legal Services) v. The Federal Republic of Nigeria

I write further to your Complaint and request for Provisional Measures received at the Secretariat of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (the Secretariat) on 14 December 2017, and which has been registered as Communication 680/17 - Nnamdi Kanu & the Indigenous People of Biafra (Represented by Adulbert Legal Services) v. The Federal Republic of Nigeria. All future correspondences pertaining to this matter should carry this reference.

The Secretariat would like to inform you that the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (the Commission) at its 23rd Extra-Ordinary Session held in Banjul, The Gambia, considered the above-referenced Communication, and decided to be seized of it.

Further, the Commission considered your request for Provisional Measures and decided to grant the request as shown by the Decision on Provisional Measures hereto attached.

In accordance with Rule 105(1) of the Rules of Procedure of the Commission, you are hereby requested to present evidence and arguments on the Admissibility of the Communication within two (2) months of this notification, to enable the Commission proceed with a determination on the Admissibility of the Communication.

Please accept my best regards,

Sincerely,

Dr. Mary Maboreke
Secretary to the Commission
